A YEAR TO REMEMBER

Wheatfield High School
Wheatfield, Indiana

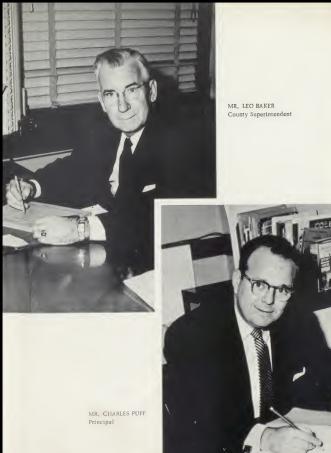

WALTER L. MYERS, TRUSTEE

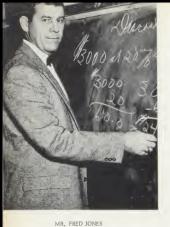

On behalf of the teachers and the student body of Wheatfield High School, it is my distinct pleasure to have the opportunity to dedicate the 1958 ARCUS to our Trustee. We have all enjoyed working with him during his elected term, and have benefited from his interest in the school, the staff, and all the pupils. A sincere "THANK YOU," from all of us.

CLASS HISTORY

We entered Wheatfield High School the same as all freshmen enter. We were all a little scared and almost excited. We had no idea of what the future would bring. Our class consisted of 56 members. With the help of our sponsor, Mr. McCollugh, we chose the following class officers: President, Gary Green; Vice-President, Robert Mathis; Secretary, Geraldine Allen; Treasurer, Wanda Risner; Senators, Margaret Schultz and John Terpstra.

We came back for our sophomore year a little more sure of ourselves. Under the supervision of Mr. Gard, we chose our class officers as follows: President, Gary Green; Vice-President, Glen Friberg; Secretary and Treasurer, Jean Fulaytar; Senators, Louise Stalbaum and Beverly Savich. Janet Dobson was chosen as Carnival Queen from our class. Janet placed second. We decided on the color of our class sweaters as Blue and Gold.

Our junior year was the most exciting of all. We ordered our rings and anxiously walted until they arrived. There was the excitement of planning our prom. Our theme was 'Moonlight and Roses.' Our officers for that year were: President, Louise Stalbaum; Vice-President, Beverly Savich; Secretary and Treasurer, Kenneth Hershman; Senators, Gary Green and Janet Dobson. Another big event in our junior year was putting on our play. We decided on two one-act plays. Miss Figert directed one and Mr. Figert directed one and Mr. Figert directed one and Mr. Figer dire

We began our senior year with a feeling of anxiety. Only 32 of us returned. Later on in the year we had two new students. They were Lynda Ransom and Sandra Allen. Under the direction of Miss Brown, we chose our class officers: President, Bill Sampson; Vice-President, Margaret Schultz; Secretary, Pat Giemza; Treasurer, Kenneth Hershman; Senators, Louise Stalbaum and Gary Green. We presented our play under the direction of Miss Figert. The name of it was "Lucky Penny."

Miss Brown had all of us on different kinds of committees to prepare for our coming commencement,

Finally the big day arrived - our commencement day. As we look back on our days at Wheatfield High School, we realize that we will never forget the wonderful times we had.

CLASS PROPHECY

The year is 1968 and the 10th annual reunion of the class of '58 is about to begin. Because so many of the class have become so prominent, the event is being televised.

Unable to attend, Harriett Kossakowski is viewing the event from her hospital room where she is recovering from food poisoning. She is a Home Ec. teacher at Wheatfield now and her freshman class in food preparation is responsible for her being here.

With her are Alberta Leach, now Mrs. Howard McDaniel and Carol Hoffman, who is Mrs. Jim Dexter. Carol has just had her fifth child and Alberta's third is due any time now.

"Gee, " Alberta is saying, "I can hardly wait to see our classmates again."

"Shh, the program's about to start, " says Carol,

"And now ladies and gentlemen, here is Secretary of Agriculture, Ken Hetrick to do the honors "

"Before we begin I'd like to introduce Bill Sampson, who as you know is the star of the rising rock and roll combo, 'Swingin' Sampson and his Solid Seven,' Bill and his band will entertain during the evening featuring that 'real gone cat' Art Bierma.

First on our list is Louise Stalbaum, head of Experimental Cookery at Betty Crocker.

'Louise, what can you tell us about those three gentlemen seated at the corner table?'

'Oh, you must mean Milton DeVries, Glen Dykstra, and Vern Tillema. Always first to try anything with their cars, these boys have started the first drag strip on the Moon, and from what I hear, those Moonmen are really crazy about it. Joan Myers and Marge Schultz, those famous speed queens, are their star attractions, Sitting next to them are Pat Giemza and John Osborn. Both comedians in school, they've formed a comedy team called 'Pat and Jack,' and are now seen on T. V.

Edna Hale, now Mrs. David Cavinder, lives on the Cavinder Estate in an 18 room mansion with their four children. Sitting with her are Beverly Savich and Gary Green. Gary is assistant football coach at Purdue, and he and Bev are celebrating their 5th wedding anniversary tonight,

Before we go any farther, I'd like to mention that the girls' gowns are all original designs by that famous designer, Lynda Ransom.

Cecil DeMoss is covering the reunion for the United Press. His biggest story came last week when Kenny Hershman, Space Explorer, discovered life on the planet Venus,

Here at a ringside table is John Terpstra, owner of the world's largest Mercury manufacturing plant. He brought along his three private secretaries, Mary Salyer, Joyce Hilton, and Jean Fulaytar.

At the table to the right of the stage is the former Dorcas Neely. She and her husband run a small hospital in the jungles of Africa. Sandra Allen is head nurse, but she was unable to attend tonight as she has contracted a bad case of jungle fever.

The tall gent at the back table is Allen Wireman. He's star center on the Minneapolis Lakers. With him are his manager, Don Wright, and Don Jefferson, who is president of the Kersey Railroad.

Coming up on stage now are Wanda Risner and Maxine Dobson. Wanda runs a big publishing house in New York, and she's made Maxine's books of poetry famous the world over. Wanda seems to have something to say.

'I just wanted to make an announcement. Alberta has just had her baby and it's a boy. Congratulations, Alberta!'

Well, ladies and gentlemen, this concludes our broadcast, hope to see you all here next year. "

CLASS WILL

- I. MARLENE NELSON, will my History grades to any one who thinks he can top them.
- I. JEAN FULAYTAR, will my ability to drive a car to Jean Hayes.
- I, JOHN OSBORN, will my dog "Champ" to the Russians, who lost theirs in the Satellite.
- I. PAT GIEMZA, will my locker door to the person who loves to shut it.
- I. GARY GREEN, will my ability not to read Miss Brown's notices to anyone who wishes to annoy her.
- I. KENNETH HERSHMAN, will my loud audacious purple cords to Mr. Stone,
- I, LOUISE STALBAUM, will my position as first flute player to Nancy Klemz or Marilyn Myers, whoever happens to play best on try out day next year.
- I, WANDA RISNER, will my picture of Elvis to anyone who can keep John Osborn and Lawrence Peshel from tearing it up.
 - I. MAXINE DOBSON, will my daring escapades and breath-taking adventures to anyone who can dream.
- I, BEVERLY SAVICH, will my friends to any friend who doesn't have a friend and who wants this friend. This friend is Lawrence Peshel.
 - I, MARGARET SCHULTZ, will my second chair clarinet to Mary Misch, who almost has it anyway.
 - I, ALBERTA LEACH, will to Bev Savich a date with Howard McDaniel. She always calls him Howie.
- I, HARRIETT KOSSAKOWSKI, will my seat in Miss Brown's English 12 class to anyone who likes to keep quiet for a whole hour.
 - I, MARY SALYER, will my drivers' license to Joan Myers, who will need it some day.
- I, JOYCE HILTON, will my bookkeeping book to Rosann Volpe, who would love to have a class without a teacher,
 - I, MARIAN NELSON, will my long hair to Miss Burtner to keep her ears warm.
- I, LYNDA RANSOM, will my share in our red and yellow model "A" to Miss Brown, as I won't be needing it for school any more.
- I, JOHN TERPSTRA, will my seat in Miss Brown's Senior English class to anyone who wants to learn something.
 - I, CECIL DeMOSS, will my Senior Cords to Mr. Stone. He seems to like them very much.
 - I, EDNA HALE, will my typing seat to anyone who wants to gaze over the assembly.
 - I, VERNON TILLEMA, will my ability to sleep in Mr. Stone's Assembly to John Ooms.
- I, GLEN DYKSTRA, will my ability to keep a car in running condition to Butch Jefferies, who seems to be having trouble along this line.
 - I, ART BIERMA, will my ability not to run in the ditch to Miss Burtner.
 - I, BILL SAMPSON, will nothing to any one, or to someone who wants something for nothing.
 - I, KENNETH HETRICK, will my ability to keep my temper to Mr. Jones.
 - I, MILTON DeVRIES, will my ability to keep hair on my head to M1. Jones when at ball games.
 - I, DORCAS NEELY, will my position as Cadet Teacher to anybody who likes to answer the question "why?"
- I, JOAN MYERS, will my ability to change the color of my hair to anyone who has nerve enough to go to Margaret Stemble.
 - I, SANDRA ALLEN, won't will anything because I haven't been here long enough to claim anything.

The Director and the net.

THE SENIOR PLAY
"LUCKY PENNY"

Kerry (John Osborn):

"Looks like tomato catsup on chicken noodle soup."

"Stay away from my daughter!
You Cassanova!" Mr. Pringle on his way to jail for disturbing the peace.

Entire cast of "Lucky Penny."

"Gee, Penny, you used to like me."
Ken Hershman trying to persuade Pat Giemza to go to the dance. No dice!

"I won't have it, do you hear?" Adolescent psychology gets on Mr. Pringle's nerves.

The unfortunate Miss Haskins (on floor) has just been conked with an Indian club. And there goes the contract.

Three models for Kerry's painting. "But nobody told me to bring a costume," Immortal words of Lynda Ransom - alias Suzette,

Although small in numbers and size, the Wheatfield Red Devils entered the 1957 football season with one thought in mind - to improve on the record of last season. This they did by sweeping through a rugged schedule undefeated. Wheatfield won the Kankakee Valley Conference and also the State mythical title for the six-man football teams.
